indicate smuggling of these comimodities on any significant scale.

(b) Smuggling being a clandestine activity, it is not feasible to estimate the extent of smuggling or increase or decrease in smuggling of sugar to Nepal and Bangladesh during the last six months.

(c) The areas adjacent to the Incto-Nepal border in the States of Uttar Pradesh, Bihar and West Bengal are areas vulnerable from the smuggling angle. On the Indo-Bangladesh border, Nadia district in West Bengal is reportedly prone to smuggling activity,

(d) The State Governments of the border States have been asked to keep watch and take appropriate steps to prevent smuggling of these commodities. The Customs and Central Excise staff and the Border Security Force have also been alerted.

(e) The prices of sugar, Khandsarl and gur have been showing a rising tendency during the past few months but the extent of such price rise due to smuggling alone cannot be estimated.
